

Landau Acquires 'Secret Agents'

United States and Canadian ownership of all rights to "The Secret Agents," a contemporary espionage drama based on an original script by Terence Young and starring an international cast headed by Henry Fonda, Robert Ryan, Vittorio Gassman, Robert Hossein, Annie Girardot and Bourvil, has been acquired by The Landau Company.

Omnia-Deutsche Films (Germany), Franco-London Films (France), and Gorri Films (Italy) are producing the film in cooperation with The Landau Company. It will be released late this Summer to The Landau Releasing Organization through Allied Artists.
